

Another plan needed

WHY doesn't the Clarence City Council bite the bullet, and move the Bellerive Yacht Club over the bay to Rosny, which would pave the way for a consortium to come in and build a high-rise casino complex for their high rollers. It would be the ultimate jewel in the crown for the council, and the sort of development the historic Bellerive Village precinct has been crying out for.

Mercury 13 June 2017

Victor Marsh
Bellerive