

Fight high rise

HOBARTIANS must not be bullied, brainwashed and bribed into unsympathetic change. Bigger does not mean better. Battery Point is a perfect example and a prime tourist attraction. Hobart should be off limits to high rise buildings and log lorries. It is not an industrial population site. The mountain and the harbour should be enhanced not hidden. Hobart has rare assets. Make the most of them.

J. Johnson
Sandy Bay