

Growing pains

IN 2013 our Premier, Will Hodgman, announced he would like a big Tasmania, and grow Tasmania's population.

Here we are now in 2017 and we are the second-most expensive place to rent just behind Sydney and poverty is getting worse.

I have also noticed a greater number of interstate landlords, lining the pockets of people not even living here at the cost of struggling Tasmanians. Good work Will.

Merc 3 May 2017

Paul Hayes
Glenorchy