

Hey, we're stakeholders

JUST when did the Tasmanian Government decide that the people who live here are not “key stakeholders” in development? Let us have an input. We have some excellent ideas, simply because we, the people of Tasmania, do live here. “A Tasmanian Government spokesman said it would continue to work with a number of key stakeholders to progress the concept” (Labor seeks public input on waterfront, Mercury, December 31).

Mercury 3 Jan 2019

M. Wilmot
South Hobart