

High limit sensible

CONGRATULATIONS to Alderman Helen Burnet for her wisdom and foresight in proposing the Hobart City Council have a strict, legal height limit of 45 metres in the city and 15 metres in Salamanca Cove.

It is imperative to act quickly and firmly so that the essence of Hobart is preserved; a historic port with views to die for of mountain, sea, street and waterfront, from/to our hilly surrounding suburbs.

Hobart does not need the so-called "economic" extra floors on tower blocks. We have a treasure here already.
