

Two sides to a property boom

A REALITY touch on the excitement about the so-called real estate boom in Tasmania: most ordinary people are missing out on this glee. Vendors and real estate agents get the money, low-income people get the boot. The other sombre part of this all is the high total of investor buyers, nearly all non-residents.

Peter Taylor
Midway Point

Merc 2 May 17

BOOM: High real estate prices are a blessing for some but a burden to others.